most Fascinating and Brilliant Romance, entitled

VIOLET;

OR, THE CROSS AND THE CROWN,

From the clearat pen of the above talented and accomplished authoress—a writer too well known to fame to require any landar tory introduction by us to the reading community.

Distinguished literary critics who have read the entire manuscript concur in pronoencing it far superior to any of her previous literary efforts—a work which would alone confer upon any writer high and enduring fame.

Her theme was most happily chosen, opening with a graphic and thrilling description of a wrecking scene on the coast of New Jersey, in which all on shipboard were lost, save a sweet babe, found by the wreckers, tied into its betth, probably by a find mother's own hands, as the last and only hope of saving its life; the adeption of this child by the rough and semi-assage wreckers, and the extraordinary and eventful life which she lived for many years, forms a tale which, for thriling interest, has racely been equaled, even by the genitus of living or Cooper. It will be compraed in one elegant 12mo, volume, or about 65 pages, price $\frac{1}{2}$, with our usual discount to the trade.

As the sale of this book will undoubtedly be very large, Bookseliers are most respectfully requested to norward us their orders at an early date, so that we may be enabled to fill them, in full, from the first direct, without disappointment or delay.
